

Greetings and a Happy Christmas to all

[with embedded weblinks]

December 2007

The 'wedding of the year' dominated 2007. Rebecca (née Brown) and William were married in Burnsall, Wharfedale on 28th July (see rebeccaandwill.org.uk)

Last Xmas, we were out of contact... We voyaged to Northamptonshire for 5 days (all of 10 miles as the crow flies!)

Canadian / Jamaican, Danish and US members of our family came to the wedding and we all stayed in a farmhouse in Littondale, later walking the fells.

William and Rebecca moved house. Will has changed jobs and is now a senior town planner at Sandersons in Leeds, while Rebecca has stayed on at work but 2008 may bring some exciting news...

Sanne and Charles brought the Poohs – the Mulvany family mascots

Tom, supported by his girlfriend Kate, was Best Man. They are living in Rugby but Kate has just started her first job as a tree person in Suffolk.

Maria and Sapphie are well. Long walks are demanded but Maria has just started volunteering at Shelter, squeezed in between workshops, library and facebook!

Annabel continues at Central Surgery and seems to know everyone in Rugby. She also represented the Europeans at our niece Rachel's wedding on the beach in Corolla, NC

Patrick is forever flitting but has been seen eating slowly, and has been heard, in several continents this year.

We went to Cuba for a fortnight, to celebrate Anna's birthday and our 35th anniversary, through Viñales, Trinidad, Santa Clara and Bay of Pigs (left), culminating in the May Day parade in Havana with a million excited and committed Cubans

With all our love and best wishes for 2008

Annabel, Patrick, Maria and Sapphie

And, in the summer we celebrated, @#9 with as many of our kind friends as possible, especially birthdays (William's 30th and Patrick's delayed 60th) and weddings (William and Rebecca's and our 35th)
